MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (MDP)

The Management Development Program (MDP) on Personal Grooming, organized by AKI Trust for PIMSE staff on October 4th, 2018, was a one-day event delivered by grooming and personal development experts. The program covered key areas such as the significance of personal grooming in professional settings, the impact of appearance on career development, guidelines for professional attire and dress codes, personal hygiene, grooming practices, body language, etiquette, confidence-building techniques, and effective self-presentation strategies.

The PIMSE staff actively participated in interactive workshops, role-playing exercises, and open discussions, applying learned concepts to real-life scenarios. Post-program evaluations indicated high satisfaction levels among participants, recognizing the program's relevance and its potential impact on professional growth. Constructive feedback was collected for future improvement.

Overall, the MDP by AKI Trust was deemed a resounding success, positively contributing to the personal and professional development of PIMSE staff. The acquired knowledge and skills are expected to translate into enhanced confidence, improved workplace interactions, and a positive professional image for the participants.
